Invisible actors: On bulk applications, voter name deletion

“The Election Commission must urgently curb fraudulent bulk deletions to protect democratic franchise.”

August 25, 2026 · 2 min read

DAILY EDITORIAL READER

The Election Commission of India (ECI)'s Special Intensive Revision¹ (SIR) of electoral rolls has seen allegations of bulk filing of applications seeking to delete voters' names from draft lists using Form 7 in Rajasthan, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh and, more recently Uttarakhand. Ground reports by The Hindu from Karnataka, Rajasthan and Gujarat noted that these forms were often filed in bulk fraudulently⁴ using names of people who were unaware of the filing. In several instances, hundreds of objections were filed under a single person's name. Form 7 is filed to object to⁵ an existing name — or to request its deletion — on the electoral rolls for reasons such as death, shifting, or ineligibility⁶. The ECI's Booth Level Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) has to conduct an inquiry on the application and issue a notice to the voter before taking any action. While Booth Level Agents (BLA) of political parties can file up to 10 Form 7s a day, totalling 30, there is no limit on how many forms an individual registered as a voter from the same constituency⁷ can submit. To prevent misuse, the ECI has said that if a person files more than five objections, it will trigger a mandatory⁸ review by the ERO to ensure the legitimacy⁹ of the claims.

The Opposition parties have alleged that the form was being misused through “systemic¹⁰ and coordinated¹¹ efforts” to delete names of eligible voters and embolden¹² the BJP's efforts to wrongfully gain electoral advantage. In the case of Uttarakhand, the Congress has alleged that the manner in which the bulk forms were submitted online pointed to “institutional” access being granted to some in the process. These parties have also sent delegations and submitted representations to the ECI. What is important to note is that in most cases, voters were unaware that applications for deletion of their names had been filed at all, leaving it to workers of political parties active in the constituency⁷ to bring it to their notice. According to ECI data, for the third phase of the SIR covering 16 States/three Union Territories there are 3,42,409 BLAs of political parties for an electorate¹⁶ of 36,73,87,831 or one BLA for approximately 1,073 voters. These numbers include agents from ruling and Opposition parties. In such a situation, it is incumbent upon¹⁷ the ECI to step in¹⁸ and protect the voting rights of an individual rather than leave it to the grassroot¹⁹ strength of political parties. The ECI should thus take immediate steps to address this concern. Abnormal²⁰ patterns should be investigated and the process should be monitored, with a uniform, country-wide Standard Operating Procedure, requiring verification of identity and constituency⁷ of the objector and the following of due process²¹ before any elector is deleted pursuant to²² a Form 7.

EDITORIAL STANCE

CRITICAL

"pointing out flaws"

EXECUTIVE PERSPECTIVE

The author adopts a critical and watchful tone regarding the vulnerability of electoral rolls to mass fraudulent deletions via Form 7. The editorial argues that the Election Commission of India cannot leave vigilance to political party workers and must enforce strict, uniform procedural safeguards. The piece concludes with an urgent call for systemic standard operating procedures to uphold voter rights.

Perfect host: On India as host of the 2026 BWF World Championships

“India demonstrates exemplary hosting prowess whilst French shuttlers break Asian dominance and home athletes encounter mixed fortunes.”

17 August 25, 2026 · 2 min read

DAILY EDITORIAL READER

The 2026 BWF World Championships in New Delhi marked the rise of France as an on-court force and of India as a capable host. Alex Lanier's triumph¹ in singles, and Thom Gicquel and Delphine Delrue's in mixed doubles, were the first golds in France's history. It was just over three months ago that the European nation finished a worthy runner-up² to China in the Thomas Cup, the de facto³ World Cup in badminton. The Worlds success has established France as a serious contender⁴ in a sport otherwise dominated by Asian countries. In fact, Lanier is just the third non-Asian this century — after Spain's Carolina Marin and Denmark's Viktor Axelsen — to win the singles gold at the World Championships. The 21-year-old did that at a spruced-up Indira Gandhi Indoor Stadium, which was in the dock⁶ earlier in January when pigeons and monkeys intruded into the arena during the India Open. The massive facelift⁸ ensured that the marquee⁹ event's return to India after 17 years would be long remembered. An Se-Young will also go back with happy memories after reclaiming the women's singles crown from three-time titlist¹¹ Akane Yamaguchi. The victory extended the 24-year-old reigning¹² Olympic champion's stellar¹³ 2026, during which she has won an Uber Cup gold medal, and the individual and team trophies at the Badminton Asia Championships.

For India, the competition was the 12th straight¹⁴ edition where it secured at least one medal, with Gayatri Gopichand and Treesa Jolly bagging a bronze in women's doubles. The performance is the latest in a series of good outcomes for Indian badminton after an ordinary 2025, where Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty's World Championships doubles bronze was the best result. This year, Lakshya Sen reached the All England Open final, and Ayush Shetty at the Badminton Asia Championships. P.V. Sindhu's victory at the Japan Open Super 750 last month was only her second Tour title in the last four years, and there were also triumphs for Satwiksairaj and Chirag at Singapore Open Super 750, and for Devika Sihag, Tanvi Sharma and Ashmita Chaliha at the Super 300 level. Yet, the feeling is unmistakable¹⁶ that India should have done better at a home World Championships, with Lakshya's second-round defeat to the unheralded¹⁷ American teenager Garret Tan the most disappointing. There is no questioning the 25-year-old's capability; he is a World Championships bronze medallist, a two-time All England finalist and finished an agonising¹⁸ fourth at the Paris 2024 Olympics. But no Indian men's singles player has won an elite¹⁹ BWF Super 1000-level title since K. Srikanth in 2017. A swift end to this drought²⁰ is essential for the overall health of the sport.

APPRECIATIVE YET EVALUATIVE

"praising while critically assessing"

EXECUTIVE PERSPECTIVE

The author adopts an appreciative yet evaluative tone to commend India's successful logistical turnaround as host of the 2026 BWF World Championships and highlights France's historic sporting breakthrough. However, the tone shifts to critical appraisal when examining India's on-court campaign, lamenting the home team's inability to capitalise fully on familiar conditions. The editorial concludes with a pragmatic call for Indian men's badminton to decisively end its prolonged top-tier title drought.

EDITORIAL VOCABULARY					9 WORDS
01	Triumph NOUN POSITIVE	 महान विजय A great victory, achievement, or notable success against stiff competition.	 MEMORY HOOK Sounds like 'try and jump' — when you win a big tournament, you try your best and jump with joy.	SYNONYMS • conquest • mastery • supremacy	ANTONYMS • defeat • catastrophe • subjugation
02	Marquee ADJECTIVE POSITIVE	 प्रमुख / सर्वोत्कृष्ट Pre-eminent, most important, or commanding the greatest public attention.	 MEMORY HOOK The giant brightly-lit marquee above a theatre showcases only the top-billing shows.	SYNONYMS • flagship • premier • paramount	ANTONYMS • minor • inconsequential • subsidiary
03	Reclaim VERB POSITIVE	 पुनः प्राप्त करना To retrieve or win back the possession or control of something previously lost.	 MEMORY HOOK Re (again) + claim (demand) = claiming back what once belonged to you.	SYNONYMS • regain • recapture • retrieve	ANTONYMS • forfeit • surrender • relinquish
04	Reigning ADJECTIVE POSITIVE	 वर्तमान (विजेता) Currently holding a title, championship, or supreme office.	 MEMORY HOOK Like a king 'reigning' on the throne, a reigning champion sits at the top right now.	SYNONYMS • incumbent • ruling • prevailing	ANTONYMS • former • deposed • past
05	Stellar ADJECTIVE POSITIVE	 शानदार / उत्कृष्ट Exceptionally good, outstanding, or of the highest quality.	 MEMORY HOOK Relates to 'stellar' (stars) — performing so brilliantly that it shines like the stars.	SYNONYMS • exemplary • magnificent • superlative	ANTONYMS • mediocre • dismal • lacklustre

It is wrong to cancel Telangana CM's US visit

It is wrong to cancel Telangana CM's US visit

“Blocking an Opposition leader's foreign visit reflects partisan insecurity and harms federal cooperation.”

17 August 25, 2026 · 2 min read

DAILY EDITORIAL READER

Instead of heading to Boston as planned on Sunday, Telangana Chief Minister Revanth Reddy abruptly¹ flew back to India from London — he was denied permission by the Ministry of External Affairs for the US tour, which led to the cancellation of the second leg² of his foreign trip. Undoubtedly, denying permission lay in the MEA's remit³. Before it accords political clearance, the visits of chief ministers and other dignitaries are assessed by the ministry for criteria such as the “purpose” and “level” of scheduled meetings. And yet, it is unseemly⁶ that the MEA should weaponise⁷ the rulebook's small print⁸ to cut short⁹ CM Reddy's trip. Apparently, the CM's itinerary¹⁰ included possible meetings with New York City mayor Zohran Mamdani and US Vice President J D Vance — while the NYC mayor is seen at some levels below the Telangana CM, a meeting with the US Vice President did not fit the trip's stated purpose, which was to attract investment into Telangana, including educational partnerships. This is a narrow-minded approach that does not behave¹¹ the external affairs ministry of a country like India, which prides itself on its growing confidence on the world stage, and on building global knowledge hubs like Hyderabad. Moreover, by curtailing an Opposition chief minister's foreign trip, the government looks small and heavy-handed¹⁴, sending a dismal¹⁶ signal to the world — and within the country.

The denial of permission to CM Reddy can be seen as part of a dismal¹⁶ pattern of antagonism¹⁷, and the near breakdown of dialogue, between government and Opposition at home. This is so even as Reddy, the second CM of a newly carved out state, who began his career in the ABVP, has been seen to tweak the script — in the past, he has struck a note of pragmatism¹⁹ and cordiality²⁰ vis-à-vis²¹ the government of Narendra Modi. In the aftermath, the political to-and-fro²² has seen the recycling of tired and opaque spectres and prejudices — the BJP in Telangana has insinuated that the MEA decision was meant to cut short⁹ engagement with “anti-India” and/or “anti-BJP” elements, that are out to destabilise “national security”.

After Operation Sindoor in May 2025, the Modi government dispatched seven multi-party delegations, which included prominent leaders of the Opposition, to foreign capitals. They were tasked with making India's case to the world while projecting national unity. The subject, then, was terror, but the message was more generally heartening: That whatever be the political differences within, India's ruling establishment trusted and included the Opposition in its dealings with the world. CM Reddy's abbreviated trip now points to an unfortunate and unflattering backsliding²⁵.

CRITICAL

"disapproving and fault-finding"

EXECUTIVE PERSPECTIVE

The author adopts a critical tone towards the Union government for revoking diplomatic clearance for the Telangana Chief Minister's US visit. The editorial argues that exploiting procedural technicalities to curb an elected leader's international engagement signals petty partisanship and a breakdown in domestic political trust. In conclusion, the author asserts that such heavy-handed decisions damage India's democratic stature and reverse commendable precedents of cross-party cooperation.

In saying no to Trump, Carney is doing the right thing

In saying no to Trump, Carney is doing the right thing

“Canada sets a firm precedent as middle powers push back against unilateral trade aggression.”

17 August 25, 2026 · 2 min read

DAILY EDITORIAL READER

By instructing his negotiators to walk away from¹ trade talks with the US — reportedly over Washington’s last-minute demands — Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney has drawn a red line against President Donald Trump’s weaponisation³ of tariffs. Canada’s economy is deeply integrated with⁴ that of its superpower neighbour, and Carney’s “dollar-for-dollar⁵” retaliation⁶ against Trump’s 50 per cent tariffs on around $20 billion worth of Canadian goods will inevitably⁷ hurt businesses and workers on both sides of the border. Among other “unacceptable” demands, said PM Carney, Washington seeks to restrict Canada’s ability to pursue trade deals with other countries, which would amount to⁸ an erosion⁹ of Canadian sovereignty¹⁰. Elected to power not too long ago on a promise to stand up to¹¹ Trump’s threats, Carney has done the right thing by rejecting an unequal trade relationship. In doing so, he is also acting on his assessment at Davos seven months ago: The “rules-based order¹²”, he had said, “is fading¹³”.

The Trump tariffs touch¹⁴ products from Canadian wine and dairy to furniture, clothing, cement and hockey equipment. Should Carney proceed with¹⁵ Canada’s retaliation⁶ from September 8 onwards, there will be risks, both political and economic, for his country. But the popularity of the “Buy Canadian” campaign — an expression of economic nationalism¹⁶ triggered by¹⁷ Trump’s threats, including making Canada the 51st state of the US — has already shown that many Canadians support their government’s challenge to the US president. Carney will now have to convince them that the costs of confrontation¹⁸ are worth paying.

For the Canadian PM, the showdown¹⁹ with Trump is the clearest test yet of his thesis²⁰ that middle powers²¹ must stand up to¹¹ great powers and unite. Indeed, he has been busy securing deals in Asia and Europe, a paradigm shift²² away from Canada’s economic dependence on²³ the US so far. It is too early to say whether these new partnerships have the substance to mitigate²⁴ the pain that a breakdown in²⁵ US-Canada relations will cause. But Carney is doing something rather rare in the Trump era: A middle power is saying no to a superpower.

EDITORIAL STANCE

EXECUTIVE PERSPECTIVE

COMMENDATORY

"approving and supportive"

The author adopts a commendatory tone to endorse Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney's decisive refusal to submit to aggressive US trade demands. While acknowledging the inevitable economic costs and trade disruptions, the editorial argues that defending national sovereignty and diversifying alliances represent a necessary stand for middle powers against great-power coercion.
