THE HINDU

DISASTER MANAGEMENT & CLIMATE POLICY

ARTICLE: Danger from above: On the Nepal flood

EDITORIAL STANCE

CAUTIONARY

"warning of dangers"

EXECUTIVE PERSPECTIVE

The author adopts a cautionary tone to highlight how severe climate events in the fragile Himalayan ecosystem pose escalating risks to life and infrastructure. By linking recent flash floods to systemic issues like passive neglect and unchecked development in vulnerable zones, the article urges governments to prioritize strict spatial planning and satellite-based monitoring over reactive relief efforts.
